

2018 AEMA Stakeholder Summit

The AEMA Summit will bring together Emergency Management Partners by providing them with a platform for strengthening existing relationships, building new relationships, and offering professional development and information sharing opportunities to build a more resilient Alberta.

Click on the box to view the presentation

Tuesday, December 4, 2018
Keynote 1	The Contagion of Climate Change: Is Canada Adapting Fast Enough, and if not, What Should be Done? Dr. Blair Feltmate - Head, Intact Centre on Climate Adaptation, University of Waterloo
Breakout Session 1
A1	Incident Command System in Alberta: Moving from Training to Implementation Brad Ison - Director Training, Accreditation and Standards, AEMA Joanne Auclair - Training Coordinator, CEMA, City of Calgary
A2	Making sure that lessons “learned” are not “lessons lost”: Mentorship, succession planning, and preparing for the next generation of EM professionals Jodi Manz-Henezi - Program Chair, Emergency Management Program, NAIT
A3	Opioids: The Opioid Crisis and the Emergency Response Dr. Nicholas Mitchell - Senior Medical Director, Alberta Health Services
A4	“Poking the Sleeping Dragon” – response to a business continuity building fire event” Jayne Galanka - Business Continuity Officer, Alberta Environment and Parks Brad Andres - Director, Emergency Management, Agriculture and Forestry
A5	The Alberta Shelter Module – Supporting Registration and Reception Centres During Emergencies Reg Fountain - Manager, Provincial Emergency Social Services, Community and Social Services

Wednesday, December 5, 2018

Keynote 2	Keynote 2: Tri-Council panel: First Nation and Municipalities working better together Chief Roland Twinn - Sawridge First Nation Mayor Tyler Warman - Town of Slave Lake Reeve Murray Kerik - M.D. Lesser Slave River
Breakout Session 4
D1	A Look into Collaborative Dangerous Goods Emergency Response Spencer Buckland - President, Emergency Response Assistance Canada (ERAC)
D2	Law Enforcement During Emergencies Amanda Barros - Manager, Emergency Management Services, Justice & Solicitor General Ken Ghumman - Sergeant, Alberta Sheriffs, Traffic Branch Andrew Hobson - Sergeant, RCMP John Warin - Calgary Police Service
D3	Cyber Security in the Government of Alberta and how we can help you Stuart Lee - Director, IT Security and Emergency Management Operations, Service Alberta
D4	ESS Integration in Municipal Emergency Planning with NPO's (part 1) Bonnie Lewin - Business Continuity & Recovery Planner, CEMA Brett Whittingham - Business Continuity & Emergency Planner, City of Calgary, Calgary Neighbourhoods David Kirby - Clinical Services Manager, Distress Centre Kim Savard - Program Manager, Carya Ernie Polsom - Director Emergency Management, City of Lloydminster
D5	Train to Learn: Designing Better Exercise Scenarios Josh Bowen - Instructor, Emergency Management, NAIT

Breakout Session 5
E1	Scribes can make or break your disaster response and recovery application process Chyenne Shaw - Manager of Emergency and Protective Services, Thorhild County
E2	Disaster debris management: how can we improve in Alberta? Joe Angevine - Integrated Consulting
E3	Connecting Business Continuity with Pandemic Influenza Kimberley Nelson - Manager, Emergency Management Unit, Alberta Health Mariyam Syed - Emergency Mgmt Analyst, Alberta Health
E4	ESS Integration in Municipal Emergency Planning with NPO's (part 2) Speakers include presenters from City of Lloydminster, City of Calgary, Distress Centre Calgary, CEMA and Carya
E5	Wildland Urban Interface Issues Steve Otway - WUI Structural Protection Advisor, OFC, Municipal Affairs
Plenary 2	Long range wildfire forecast for Canada- Hot and Smoky? Is this the new Reality? Mike Flannigan - Professor at University of Alberta and Director of the Canadian, Partnership for Wildland Fire Science
Plenary 3	To the Edge and Back - Lessons Learned from my PTSD Journey Daniel Sundahl - DanSun PhotoArt

