

Tim Neubauer bio

Tim Neubauer is the Rural Mental Health Project Coordinator with the Canadian Mental Health Association, Alberta Division.

Tim is an accomplished trainer and has spent over 28 years working in the social profit sector; with a background in community development and psycho-social capacity building.

He is currently involved in the ongoing development of training and a provincial network supporting mental health in rural communities across Alberta.