Narrative or Essay Writing Assignment Functional Writing Assignment

Because students' responses to the Narrative or Essay Writing Assignment vary widely—from philosophical discussions to personal narratives to creative approaches—assessment of the Narrative or Essay Writing Assignment on the provincial achievement test will be in the context of Louise Rosenblatt's suggestion that "the evaluation of the answers would be in terms of the amount of evidence that the youngster has actually read something and thought about it, not a question of whether, necessarily, he has thought about it the way an adult would, or given an adult's 'correct' answer."

Rosenblatt, Louise. "The Reader's Contribution in the Literary Experience: Interview with Louise Rosenblatt." By Lionel Wilson. English Quarterly 14, no. 1 (Spring, 1981): 3–12.

Consider also Grant P. Wiggins' suggestion to assess students' writing "with the tact of Socrates: tact to respect the student's ideas enough to enter them fully—even more fully than the thinker sometimes—and thus the tact to accept apt but unanticipated or unique responses."

Wiggins, Grant P. Assessing Student Performance: Exploring the Purpose and Limits of Testing. San Francisco: Jossey-Bass Publishers, 1993, p. 40.
